“ There are some people in this world that are always a pleasure to see on an every day basis. People who just brighten your day by just being there with a friendly hello, a warm smile, delightful conversation and their own special, subtle humor- people who just make a difference in your life, your neighborhood- the world. Bishop Orine Sutton was all of that to us! Her presence in the neighborhood, whether she was preaching on Sundays and throughout the week, in her yard admiring her garden or scrolling down the walk to compliment her neighbors' gardens, telling Elder Sutton that he was climbing up too high on the ladder while he was working on their house, having summer sidewalk cookouts for her parishoners and neighbors to enjoy, conducting box lunch fund raisers or her just sitting outside on her sideporch watching the world go by- the list goes on and on- was an all so common and familiar occurence in the best of ways. It absolutely breaks our hearts to know that she is gone and that those days are never to be again. We hope that everyone's memories and thoughts of her will help fill those cracks and mend those saddened hearts as she goes Home. To Elder Sutton, The Family, all of her friends and neighbors and everyone who knew her, this is with our deepest sympathy and most sincere regrets for your loss. The Reverand Sutton was truly lovely, and she will be missed beyond any measure.##imported-begin##Reyno A. Crescini and Ernest M. Wood 1229 S St. NW##imported-end##
