

Ossie J. Fobs

March 12, 1952 - November 10, 2009

A smile for all a heart of Gold, one of the best the World has known. Ossie was kind loving, thoughtful, respectful and helpful to everyone. Never selfish, he had a lot of faith in God and love for his wife, never have I ever met a man so sweet. Ossie had lots of love for his family and friends. These are the memories you left behind.

Ossie J. Fobs, husband and friend of Mabel Buford Fobs since 1998, son of the late Queen Ester and the late Otis Fobs of Richmond, VA, Ossie was born March 12, 1952 in Richmond, VA. He was educated in public schools of Washington, DC.

Ossie loved to attend the American Church of Rescue Workers in Capitol Heights, MD. Until his health began to fail him and his wife, he attended every Sunday with his family because he cared about people who seriously needed help. Ossie loved life to the fullest. He was joyful, loved to play, celebrate and most of all he loved his family.

On Tuesday, November 10, 2009, God saw fit to call His child home and Ossie tried to fight the battle, but "Peace" with God had won.

Ossie leaves behind his wife, Mabel Buford Fobs; stepchildren, Melinda Buford, Brainnard Buford, Patricia Buford and Robert A. Wells; grandchildren and great-grandchildren, three sisters, Maude Fobs, Dorothy Speight and Pamela Dixon; four brothers, Otis Fobs of Virginia, Verna Dixon of Maryland, Eric Fobs of Virginia and Mann Dixon of Virginia; his stepmother, Annie Fobs; sisters-in-law, Mollie Wells, Mary Love, Nancy Alford, Janie M. Washington and Esther Sanders all of North Carolina; brothers-in-law, Dossie Speight, James A. Wells and Roosevelt Sanders all of North Carolina and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who hold fond memories of him.
