“ Pam was a great person. She worked as a dedicated teacher for DCPS for many years. We shared stories about our experiences while working there. She was so happy when she was able to retire. She had a great sense of style with her outfits which included matching shoes, purse and accessories. She loved her church family and we loved her. Condolences to the family.

MY

The journey along life's pathway has many twists and turns, uphill climes and low places. One of the gifts God gives us are the wonderful people we meet along the way. Pam and her mother, Mrs. Lillian Outlaw, are two of the most precious gifts God has given me on my journey.
