“ *Paul,
You are in my prayers. May the peace of God be with you at this time of sorrow. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. Pat was a very classy and joyful person. She was my strength when we worked together at the NRC's H Street location.
She was like a "Big Sister" to me. My deepest sympathy to you and your family. If there is anything that I can do for you please contact me.
Peace!##imported-begin##Renea Bailey##imported-end##*

“ Dear family and friends of Ms. Pat Sullivan.

*I am Richard Horrworth, friend of Pat's, and honored to be her friend
- just a customer
for six years at Starbuck's in Leisure World and El Mercado.*

I hope this may add to your special knowledge of this special lady.

Pat pretty much ran Starbucks. She interviewed and hired every one; she trained all of them. They loved her - love her. She told me of her years traveling and appraising performance in the field for the Department of Labor ? - Forgive me if memory fades. I turn 80 in January.

She was cheerful, upbeat, resolute, and - so industrious. She set an example for all.

Her favorite subject, if I asked, was about her son, Paul - before his marriage, after his marriage and on and on. She was / is so proud of him.

It is said that a tree is best measured when it is down. It is said also that someone's leave - is as a 'lordly cedar, green with boughs, goes down with a great shout upon the hills and leaves a lonesome place against the sky.'

Friends and loved ones of Pat - she leaves a lonesome place. She never complained.

She planned for tomorrow and lived for the day.

Our talks spanned from the March on Washington to the values of today's young people.

Thank you for lending her to us. Her ripple effect will go on and on.

Reverentially for this great lady,

*Richard Dick Horrworth##imported-begin##Richard

“ I worked with Pat at the NRC several years ago. The last time I spoke with Pat was about 22 years ago, when she visited me in the hospital, a day after the birth of my daughter. We engaged in lovely conversation and enjoyed each other's company. I am extremely sorry to hear about the passing of Pat. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.##imported-begin##Elizabeth Jacobs-Baynard##imported-end##

“ I was deeply saddened to learn of the death of "Pat," as we all called her at the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission where I worked with her. We kept in touch with each other, and I last talked to her in the spring of this year. She is a courageous woman, and I know that she will be missed by all. My heart is with you in love and sympathy during your hours of bereavement.##imported-begin##Barbara A. Mack##imported-end##

“ Paul,

I worked with your mother for many years at the AEC/NRC. She was truly a beautiful woman and she truly loved you. Always treasure those memories.

Love and happiness
