“ I first met Pat in 1978 when I accepted a job with the District of Columbia Disability Office. I finally retired in 2014 and Pat was with me the whole time.

We worked hard together and achieved success in raising our performance as an agency.

But more importantly is the personal and professional relationship we cultivated.

Pat was someone I always respected for her friendship, faith, work ethic and kindness.

When I heard of her passing, I added her to my nightly prayers and will continue to do so.

Please accept my sympathy and best wishes to all of her many family and friends.
