“ Patsy was one of the first colleagues I met when I started at GSFC in 1986. She always proudly talked about her family. She was always a kind and gentle person who wanted to help in any way she could. I will always remember her calm way. Prayers go out to all her family and closest friends. Randy

I shared an office with Patsy for many years and loved it. I would get to hear her side of conversations with her kids, comments like, “get down from there and wash the toe prints off the refrigerator!”

Patsy was like a big sister in warm and wonderful ways. My heart is full thinking about her and looking forward to seeing her in Heaven. God bless all her family who will miss her so.
