“ There are so many memories starting as a teenager to me now in my sixties. My first slot machine experience was with Patsy and Jamie many years ago. My winnings was $20 of which Jamie informed me that I was responsible for the next round of drinks. I was in awww. Next is our road trip to The Worlds Fair in Canada, stopping at Niagara Falls, sleeping in the car at a trailer camp, and being left at the concert to find our way back to the motel of which we had no idea of the name. My father was Patsy's first cousin. She nurtured him like a brother and helped me like I was her daughter, providing a listening ear, caring for my first born, and godmother to my second born. After my father's passing, Patsy made it a point to reach out as often as she could to make sure all was well with me and my mother, even as recent as a few months before her passing.

Patsy was such a loving and caring person. She will be missed by everyone that she touched during her lifetime.
