“ To My family,

I am so sorry I did not attend the homecoming of my Peaches. I did try but the weather condition did not allow me to go forth.

Peaches was as if a Mother to me, always with encouraging words and a warm smile. I admired her so much because she stated what was on her mind and, how she kept up with herself; very stylish a "real" class act. She was so fortunate to have daughters and family members to care about her. I could see how much Mr. Gray cared for her too. As in, how he took care of the backyard looking like Paris in the summertime and making sure, she had comfort as his Queen. Now she has a mansion -- boy, what a life! As you can see, I have my wonderful memories too. As I type this, I am smiling because she is okay now. No more earthly struggles and worries. She leaves many her attributes with you all. When I see you, again I will see her.

Oh Marion, it just registered. Bless your heart. Hope all is well with you. You really described your neighbor well. Daddy's Peaches, how sweet the sound, he loved her like a woman should be loved, and cared for his family as a man should as well. She was blessed and a blessing.
