“ Fred Burns (Husband of Brenda Lampkin) Mrs. Lampkin, the one fond memory that I have is when I first met you 14 years ago and we were sitting at the kitchen table in your house. I told you that I wanted to marry your daughter and you just looked at me like I was crazy. Needless to say, I took that as a yes. I will miss your calls to our house when I answer the phone. I will miss you asking me for the cats, Travis and Grays. I always did enjoy your cooking, I will miss that as well. Thank you Mrs. Lampkin for letting me be a minor part of your life. I will miss you, however, we will see each other again.

“ As a baby you cradled me in your arms...
Teaching me all your gentle charms.
From listening to Sam Cooke with you
Then, showing me how to hand dance too
Growing up with you by my side...
Learning from you it's never good to lie.
You showed me how to understand and not judge
Love and kindness and holding no grudge.
Through the years you watched me grow...
Teaching me everything I'd need to know
I remember running to you after being so bad and grown
And you tell my mother and aunts “To leave that girl alone”
It's only been a few minutes but seems like an eternity to me.
I miss my Grandma Peggy already and I wish that she rest in peace eternally .
It's only been a few hours but a million tears I have shed.
I long to hear your voice say my name and hold my hand as you always had.
It's only been a few days but my heart aches so bad.
I know you would say ...Please don't be so sad.
Thank you for the gift of love,
now you're sharing it from up above.
You had many things to say.
But all in your special caring way.
You always saw good in everyone,
No matter what they've done.
You were always the one we could all lean on.
Even though it must have felt like a ton.
You were always the strength of the family.
Now we must let you rest calmly.
As we say goodbye,
as tears of sadness and joy rolls down our eyes.
I know your place in heaven has a good view.
Because you're asking God,
I need to keep an eye on a few.
I will miss you with all my heart...”

*Thank you for being there from the start.
My childhood is filled with memories of you that couldn't be bought with all the riches in the world,
And even though' I am all grown up, in my heart I will always be GRANDMA'S LIL' GIRL!!!*

I LOVE YOU GRANDMA.....

Sherry
