

Mr. Peter E. McQueen

January 18, 1965 - March 27, 2026

Peter Emmanuel McQueen was born on January 18, 1965, to Mona McQueen and Emmanuel Leo in St. George's, Grenada.

He was raised in Belmont, St. George, where he completed his early education and formed lifelong connections within his community. From a young age, Peter developed a deep passion for the sea and boats—a passion that would shape the course of his life.

Peter dedicated many years of service to Grenada Yacht Service (GYS), where his skill and love for boating were evident. In his early adult years, he migrated, first sailing to St. Croix and later settling in the United States. His career remained rooted in his lifelong passion, and he excelled in his craft with pride and dedication.

Peter lived his life guided by his Rastafarian faith, which he embraced wholeheartedly and carried with him throughout his journey.

He will be remembered for his strength, his spirit, and his unwavering connection to the sea.
