“ I remember Monica first telling me about the Love of her life Philip. And most importantly how God was in this from the first time they met till present. Philip was truly a man of God. He passionately and intensely loved Monica in every way a man should love his partner, lover, friend and wife. He was funny and above all down to earth and fun. He made you feel like family. He accepted my whole family with open arms, including my dog gus. He kept him for us when we went on vacation. Gus gave him a hard time. So Gus sent him and Monica a card. It was and is an honor and pleasure to have met such a valuable and gifted, loving, caring man of God. And I'm glad God put Philip and Monica together. And that I truly learned something from them. Philip and Monica I love you both. And Philip you will always be a beautiful impression in my heart. God Bless Monica, The Baltimore Family, relatives and friends. Stay encourage, and keep your eyes lifted up to heaven. Because that is what Philip would have wanted you to do.##imported-begin##Deborah Hayes##imported-end##

“ May the Baltimore family find comfort in knowing that just as Jesus received power from his Heavenly Father to raise back to life his close friend Lazarus John 11;43,44, he will soon use that same God-given to resurrect Phillip to life right here on earth under peaceful conditions where the sting of death will no longer exist. Please read God's promises at John 5;28,29; Psalm 37;29; Rev. 21;3,4 and Psalm 83;18. Please rest your hope in these promises during this difficult time and the days ahead. Take care,##imported-begin##Valerie Thompson##imported-end##
