

Phillip Robinson

December 16, 1922 - January 7, 2012

Phillip was born to Ernie Braddock and William Robinson in Shipman, Virginia. Phillip was one of ten children. He was lovingly nicknamed Stack by his family. As a young man, Phil joined the Armed Services and served in WWII. During his time in the military Phil met and married his wife Marie Kaiser. With this union, they had one child, a daughter, Virginia Robinson (Whaley) in 1939. After his time in the service, Phil went on to work until he retired with A&O Railroad, building railroads up and down the East Coast.

Phil and Marie moved from rural Virginia to Washington DC in the mid 1950's to be near their only child, Virginia Whaley, who went on to marry and have five children. Phil and Marie lived for many throughout Washington DC before finally settling in Anacostia.

He is survived by one sister Lucy Harris of Charlottesville, Va. Grandchildren Cheryl Gerald Hamilton, Robert Whaley, Jr, Anthony Whaley, Cherrealle Whaley Moore, Cherleene Whaley. Great-grands: Chervette Whaley Cole, Glenn Gerald, Andre Clark, Burnie Hamilton, Robert D. Whaley, Kenneth Moore, II., Joshua Whaley and great-great grands: Camren Whaley Cole, Canon Cole, Cason Cole. He is also survived by a host of nieces and nephews.
