

Pierre A. Stevens

December 10, 1962 - January 15, 2024

Pierre Antonio “Tony” Stevens, born on December 10, 1962, in Washington, DC, entered eternal rest with grace and dignity. He was the beloved son of Sarah Bell and William Thomas Stevens, who raised him in the warmth of a Christian home. In his early years, Pierre found solace and purpose in his faith, becoming a member of Greater People Union Baptist Church, where he received the sacrament of baptism. Later in life, he continued his spiritual journey at Mt Ennon Baptist Church, contributing his time and dedication to the usher’s board.

Educated in the District of Columbia Public School System, Pierre proudly graduated from Spingarn S.T.A.Y High School, marking the beginning of his journey into the workforce. Armed with a commercial driver's license, he embarked on a fulfilling career as a trash truck operator, dedicating the majority of his professional life to Bates Trucking Trash Removal and Waste Management. In his final employment with LAZ Parking, he served as a reliable shuttle bus driver for Washington Hospital Center, demonstrating his unwavering work ethic, punctuality, and dependability.

Beyond his professional achievements, Pierre's greatest source of pride and joy was his role as a devoted father, affectionately known as “Girl’s Dad.” His special bond with each of his daughters was a testament to his commitment to providing guidance and instilling invaluable life values. A dedicated family man, he cherished moments spent with his daughters and grandchildren, ensuring they always felt loved and supported.

Pierre was not only a loving father but also a steadfast friend, maintaining meaningful connections throughout his life. He was an avid Dallas Cowboys fan, whose passion for the team brought joy and camaraderie. His vibrant spirit, filled with love, laughter, and happiness, made him a cherished member of his community. Known for his sense of humor, Pierre could always be counted on to bring a smile to the faces of those around him.

Pierre was preceded in death by his loving parents and grandmother Cora Bell Robinson Tillery; Siblings: Samuel B. Tillery, William Savage, Craig Lorenzo Stevens, and Katie "Pinky" Savage. While we mourn his physical departure, we celebrate the legacy of a life well-lived. Pierre leaves behind a treasure trove of memories for his loved ones to hold dear. Blessed to cherish his memories are his children, Teneisha Pierra Nelson and Marvete Pierra Stevens; grandchildren: Jalin Nelson, Caiden Richardson, Samiyah Kelly, Ariyanna Kelly, Tyler Stevens, and Kyrie Stevens; Sister: Inez Stevens Djidonou (Maurice); Nephews: Kendrick Williams, Christopher and CeQue; Nieces: Yakinnia Savage, and Patrice (Princeton); and a host of aunts, uncles, and friends. May his laughter echo in our hearts, and may the love he shared continue to inspire us all.

“ Pierre and I have been close friends for well over 3 decades. We met in Quincy, and have been close friends ever since. Over the years, we always kept in touch with one another, he always had my back and was always there for me. Pierre was a great friend and a wonderful person, and I am truly grateful to have known him. My thoughts and prayers are with the family as you navigate this difficult time.

Love always & forever your dearest friend , Wanda Moten.

“ My cousin Pierre was one of the funniest men on this planet. Never a dull moment, so many great memories. I especially loved how he poured into my oldest son encouraging him through some his toughest times. He loved talking and helping people; more importantly he loved God. I will miss my cousin, but I will never forget him. My condolences to his children and family. Peace and Blessings!! Kim Hester

To the Stevens Family, please accept our most sincere condolences. Pierre was an usher at Mt. Ennon Baptist Church in Clinton, Md up until he left the area. He was very faithful in this ministry and very fun person. He was often thought about by members who would always ask about. Family although this is a very difficult time for you just keep trusting and putting your faith in GOD and he will see you through this time of bereavement. God Bless.
