“ Meeting Aunty Sandra was like stepping into sunshire after months of winter rain. She greeted Stuart and I at JFK airport and I don't think a bigger smile has ever been seen in New Yourk since. Nothing was too much trouble for her on those sight seeing tours and laughter sprinkled all her conversations. I feel blessed to have known such a beautiful soul. She was a woman with a huge, big loving heart and the world won't be quite as bright without her.##imported-begin##Lisa Reece-Lane##imported-end##

“ Sandra was a very important part of my life and the life of Molloy College, Sigma Theta Tau and Nursing. I will miss her enthusiasm, ready smile and innate calm. We spent a great time together at the Convention in Toronto, November 2003. As President of the Epsilon Kappa Chapter, I have decided to establish a scholarship fund in her name that will honor nursing education graduate students who embody her spirit and professionalism. A plaque will hang in the Nursing Division for all to see and remember her dedication and vision.##imported-begin##Alicia Stone##imported-end##

“ Sandra was a wonderful sister that we did not see often enough, now the chance to put that right has been snatched away and she is sorely missed. My love to Jean and the rest of the family in their deep sorrow. Remember the happy times. With love always,

“ Sandra and I met while doing our Master's degree at Molloy College. I was in several classes with her, and a wonderful friendship developed. We continued as friends on the Executive Board of Molloy's nursing honor society, sharing many wonderful experiences. Sandra was so happy being an educator, and I know she will be missed by many she has touched. My prayers are with Jean and all her family. Sandra- I will miss you!###imported-begin###Anne Comiskey###imported-end###

“ I am saddened by this news I pray that you will find comfort knowing that we have a God who knows our sorrows and pain. We also mourn with comfort because we know that God had something better for Sandra and we will see her again. May the Eternal One forever be your solace and we remember Sandra with love and deep affection###imported-begin###audrey jackson###imported-end###

“ Sandra and I met the first day of graduate school in 1995. When we were instructed to pick a debate partner, Sandra and I chose each other and a wonderful friendship commenced. We ended up taking every single class together with many laughs and a few tears along the way. We later became Board members of STTI Honor Society and even travelled to Indianapolis for a Leader's Conference. When Sandra moved to Virginia, I felt that a part of me was missing but knew it was the best move for her and Jean. The Professors at Molloy always said that we were connected at the hip and now that hip is gone forever. She was a loyal friend and I will miss her greatly.
My sincere sympathy to Jean, Kurt and the entire family on their devastating loss.##imported-begin##Janet Arzberger##imported-end##
