“ *I lost my mother, my cheerleader and my greatest friend Dec 1, 2006, I understand the sadness that follows...the sadness will never go away, but please find comfort in knowing that there is infinite wisdom displayed in this division by Him who cannot err. One to us may be a loving mother, but to Him an obedient child. All things in due season...It is God's plan that your mother's season is ended to allow your season to begin. May the loving arms of our Protector hold your entire family in this your time sorrow until your tears of sorrow turns to tears of joy for the life a wonderful mother.
