“ My deepest condolence goes out to my family and good friends' Pearsons and Browns. My life-long brother will be missed beyond belief. There are so many memories that it's just too hard to pick one. Body and I grew up together since toddlers. We played basketball, football, tag and anything other sports we could get our hands on together. Throughout the years, I was always welcomed to watch the games with the fellows and have some great get-down-n-dirty sports trash talking. We were buddies to the end. Body and I would talk about our health, family, jobs, whatever... But most of all, Body always had a mild mannered demeanor. He never let things over burden him and if they did, I never knew about them. When we rapped, memories from the past would flow as if they were yesterday. We joked, laughed, and reminisced about the wonderful and crazy things we did as kids, teenagers and young adults. Body, I raise my hand for a toast in your honor my brother. Please wait for me, cause we will hook up again in heaven.

Your friend and brother for life,

Gus.

Hello Deb, my life-long friend, sister and neighbor, it was a very, very, very sad day for me also. My heart and soul was with you and your family. I would have never missed such an important day as my brother's heavenly coming if it weren't for extenuating circumstances beyond my control. Please forgive me, for I would like to apologize to you and everyone that loved and supported our dearly-missed Quintin.

“ My dearest first cousin, Quintin better known as "Body" left us all too soon. Body had a quiet spriit with a gentle heart. He NEVER EVER had anything negative to say about anyone. He was very thoughtful. I could count on a call from body on my birthday, most recently, January 14, where he called me from his hospital bed He often teased me on my birthday saying, Dep, you are older than me now, ha ha ha. Another memory of body was DJaying a party at my deceased sister , Sheila's house. He love music and body was rocking the house playing heart Beat, everybody at the party started chanting, Body's heart beat, he would get hyped as he danced around playing hit after hit. These are the good times I want to remember about my dearest cousin body, you were my heart beat, and the fonds memories of you will continue to make my heart beat until I see you again. RIP Body! Love you to infinity and beyond, Deb
