“ To Renee and family,

Mrs. Harris was such a jewel. I loved our conversations when I would take her home after our Wednesday noon day prayer service. Often when I dropped her off she would invite me in the house to take home some of her home cooked beans or whatever she had for me to take for my lunch. You couldn't have known a more generous and loving person. I worked with her on the old Condolence Club at Greater First Baptist and she always made the members feel so welcome when we met at her home for our meetings. She was just a warm and loving soul and will be deeply missed. Thankfully the wonderful memories will help fill in that void as a part of her will always remain within our hearts.
