“ I remember Reby well from our days back in the 60's as telephone operators together. She and her first husband Robert introduced me and my husband of 55 years, Tony. When we married, she gave us some crystal salt and pepper shakers. They are still on my table now. Her parents, the Hines family were always hospitable to me as a new DC resident. Our sincere condolences go out to her family. Her kindness will be missed.
