“ It was very painful for me to write this to you, that's why I held out until now. You and I where like sisters, good or bad we always found a way to talk, to laugh, to cry. I still remember your little yellow pajamas, your crazy smile and the funny comments that you used to make. But there's one thing that I will truly miss is us talking about our secret we've shared that secret for 25 years and next year will be our year to talk. It's funny how something so small became an institution for us, you will surely be missed. Rest in peace.
