“ I just today read that Regina had passed on. I am so sad but also filled with thoughts of her words on bcmets. She joined us last year and was such a shining example of a strong woman finding her way through breast cancer. We never met in person but I felt I knew her, at least I knew her in her struggle with breast cancer. You, her family, of course knew the whole Regina. I am so sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Dawn L. Gemperle##imported-end##

“ For Regina's family, friends, and coworkers -

I only "knew" Mz Regina through the bcmets.org support group listserv, and her photos on the picturetrail.com bcmetsters' album page, but her spirit and vitality came through every post she made, and each photo that shows her great smile. She'll be missed on the list, and my sympathies go out to those of you blessed to have known her personally.

Love & peace,

“ I knew "Mz Regina" on line from bcmets. Her forthright support of others, her wonderful sense of humor, and her acknowledgement of the difficulties of this disease touched me deeply. We will miss her greatly.

What a loss this is for her family and friends. She always wrote of her family with such great affection.

May light perpetual shine upon her.##imported-begin##Pam Breakey##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences in the death of your loved one. Death robs us of our most precious possession; our relationships. It is an enemy and a thief. The Bible gives hope. It promises "and death will be no more" Revelation 21:3,4It also promises a resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous to paradise earth. This is found @ Acts 24:15, Psalms 37:10,11. I hope this thought offers some small comfort for you.##imported-begin##Lena Bey##imported-end##
