“ Sending my most sincere condolences and prayers to the Dickens, Solomon, and all connectional families. Reginald will be missed, especially when visiting NC and yelling my entire name whenever I came out of the house. May the many fond memories we have of him forever remain as his living legacy. He was truly the life of the party and will be sorely missed.

“ My name is Allegra, Paul's wife. I am very sad that we will not be able to be there. To "Reds" as I know you, Paul is a man of few words. But I can say that he will REALLY miss hanging out and laughing with you. Rest in peace

“ The memories are many throughout our lives from childhood to adulthood. The most cherished moments were when we had "honest" conversations. Your candor and truth about self is what I appreciated about you most. You were a true family man and cousin above many. I love you and will truly miss you. Rest well cousin. God has you now and all is well.

“ Your constant picking and our back-and-forth banter, which I always looked forward to whenever we were gathered, I will miss. You were always a joy to be around and your presence will be greatly missed. Though your exit from this side of the sun shocked all and hurt many, God knew best and has the final say. "Rest well the Funniest Brother-in-law."
