

Reginald Lawrence Jones

October 11, 1959 - September 1, 2024

Reginald L. Jones, affectionately known as Reggie, was born on October 11, 1959, in Baltimore, Maryland, to Lydia V. Jones and the late Franklin Jones. On the morning of Sunday, September 1, 2024, after a courageous battle with cancer, God called Reggie home.

Reggie was educated in the Baltimore City public school system, where he graduated from Southwestern High School. He continued his education at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore and UMBC. Reggie's career began in the 1980s at Hochschild Kohn's, later working at RC Cola, and ultimately dedicating over 35 years of service to the City of Baltimore before his retirement.

In his spare time, Reggie found joy in the simple pleasures of life. He loved fishing, grilling, and traveling with his wife, Rhonda. A true sports fanatic, he could often be found watching football, basketball, and boxing. His passion for science led him to spend countless hours in his shed, always dreaming up his next great invention. Whether he was in his man-cave, tending to his garden, or gazing at the stars, Reggie was happiest when surrounded by the things he loved.,

Reggie was preceded in death by his father, Franklin Jones. He leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories, survived by his lifetime partner & devoted wife, Rhonda Jones; his daughters, Brittany Jones, Brieon Jones and Shay Simms; his son, Terrance Hall; his mother, Lydia Jones; his brother, Michael Jones; and his sister Karen Jones. Reggie was especially excited about the arrival of his new granddaughter, Braylee Smith. His grandchildren, Isaiah Hall and Jasmine Hamilton-Hall were a constant source of his pride and joy. Reggie's legacy extends to numerous relatives and friends who will deeply miss his presence.

Reggie's spirit will live on in the hearts of all who knew him, as his memory continues to inspire, love, kindness, and resilience
