“ I would just like to say for the record that to me, my dad was the greatest dad in the world. I am the man I am today because he was always there for me. His love and guidance was never ceasing while he was here on this earth. We had some fun times some spiritual times and some how can I put this correctly, Oh some time of correctional counseling. He will be missed by me and my family, but he will always be remembered in our hearts.##imported-begin##Houston Jeffrey Johnson##imported-end##

“ *To the family:
It is true that Reverend Johnson was a preacher worthy of high praise. His reputation is very precious. But we should not forget Psalm 30, which proclaims: "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."##imported-begin##Albert Price##imported-end##*

“ Grandpa Johnson was loved by our family. I remember him visiting in my parents home when we came to visit from New York. He was always strong, and he would pick my sons up in the air. They would enjoy that so much. Grandpa Johnson and I shared a love of tennis. He was an inspiration when he played in the senior games. I thank God for the witness he has been in our lives. May his soul rest in peace.###imported-begin##Amanda N Carnie###imported-end##
