“ Rhondye, too soon you leave us
Your light among us dimmed Our hearts heavy with the loss of your smile and laughter' Rises now with the songs the birds sing at dawn.

You will always be the boy draped on the porch railing...greeting me with your infectious smile, "Hello Ms. Holler. How are you?"

You will light the sky for us tonight and shine on among the stars forever. Debbie

“ I was to attend a reception a few years back off Carrier Circle. I couldn't find the hotel. I stopped at Doubletree I think to ask directions. I had no idea Rhondye was in town, but there he was. He invited me to stop in at Shariah's reception when I was free. It was a memorable evening for me to be made so welcome. We in the Holler/Woeger/Clarke/Williams family will always love Rhondye, never forget him, never get over his passing. Peace and love to you all. Paul Woeger

He was the commencement speaker at his graduation ceremony and everyone was moved by his speech. He was an excellent student and an extremely funny individual. You always left his presence with a smile or a chuckle. Rhondye you will be missed.....and we love you!*
