“ Our sincerest condolences to the Lewis family. Ricarda babysat for me when I was an infant. She was a wonderful lady that always followed my progress throughout my life. That was the kind of a person she was. Tremendous loyalty, comittment and love to all those who knew her. She will be sorely missed.

Sincerely,

“ I had the honor and privilege to meet Ricarda at John Carroll Elementary School. After finding out that we shared a birthday our friendship grew. I will always treasure our shopping dates and our lunches at my favorite place. Ricarda shared her sense of humor, her "coupon" knowledge, her professional insight and her friendship with me. I will miss her greatly. Her untimely departure from this life will leave a void in my heart. She was my friend.##imported-begin##Doug Gaither##imported-end##

“ I've known Ricarda for many years and she was truly a very concerned and thoughtful friend. Ricarda has always been interested in others and thinking of ways to assist others in any way she could. Ricarda was truly a "people-person". She was quite thoughtful Cards, gifts, notes thrifty Coupons/sales. She enjoyed being around people- planning outings with her friends and coworkers.
I truly miss her and thank God for the privilege of knowing her. You and your family are in my prayers and may you find peace in knowing that God loves you and comfort in knowing that God will take care of you.##imported-begin##LaVerneGuire##imported-end##

“ I met Ricarda at John Carroll Elementary School, on my first day of employment with the Prince George's County Schools. Ricarda was very welcoming and had much information to help a new employee. She was most helpful to all and she especially blessed my family during my extended period of illness with a helping hand. She remembered people's special occasions and her outlook on school and family often brought some laughter, humor, and fun to the work place. I am saddened to learn of her untimely departure and I thank her for her spirit and presence. Many blessings to her surviving family and know that she was a special soul and will be missed.##imported-begin##Rev Winthrop S Cmaeron##imported-end##
