“ I'm seeing this many years later, but I have viewed Richard Cole's NDE story on YouTube many times. He seemed like a very kind and good man, and his story was very moving and inspirational. I hope and pray that his family members are doing well. (I know that Richard is doing very well).

I also: Therese Baca (s@yahoo.com) In his testimony he mentions that he translated the Bible from the original manuscripts. Is that work available?

- I left a comment a couple years back. I'd like to find out about Mr. Cole's translations from the Bible, too. I can't imagine his experience and have watched the video of him a few times. Very moving and touching. My deepest condolences to his family. Please contact me, Lisa Brush, at, lmb_17@yahoo. Light and love.

Hi my name is Edith Coltrane and I saw Richards' video and I was so moved that when he started crying something moved inside of me and I started crying with him. I'm glad that Richard found the Lord and that his life was changed forever. Now I didn't have a near death experience but my life was changed through the death of losing my oldest brother and now just recently (2020) I lost my youngest son he was 36 years old. So I'm asking If the family of Richard Cole or anyone that has a copy of Richards' translations from the bible could you please send me a copy? My email address is: efithcoltrane@yahoo.com
