

Richard Durrell Holland

June 22, 1979 - August 1, 2024

Richard Durrell Holland was born in Washington DC on June 22, 1979, to Carlita Deborah Jones and George Richard Holland. He was an energetic child involved in various activities throughout his youth. Richard attended Noyes Elementary School, Fort Lincoln Middle School, and Wilson High School where he was on the student council, played basketball and drums for the drill team.

His love of basketball and towering presence made him ideal for the courts where he competed in neighborhood tournaments for Fort Lincoln and DC Parks & Recreation. Richard's sense of adventure also extended to horseback riding, go-cart racing, and museums. At the age of 13 he accepted Christ and was baptized at New Genesis Baptist Church with his mother present.

Following high school he worked for Safeway and as a home improvement contractor under Mr. Leon Woods with the DC Cares Program developing skills in the trades including electrical, plumbing and painting.

In July 2024 Richard became ill and was diagnosed with congestive heart failure. On August 1, 2024 Richard was called home to the Lord. He leaves behind his loving mother Carlita Jones, father George Holland and a host of aunts, cousins and friends.
