

Robert Allen Kitt

December 22, 1925 - September 4, 2006

Robert Allen Kitt was born on December 22, 1925 in Washington, D.C. to the late Robert Kitt and Gussie Richardson Kitt. He departed this life suddenly on September 4, 2006 at Washington Hospital Center.

He was educated in the D.C. Public School System, and joined the United States Army on April 3, 1944 where he fought in the Korean War. He served in the Asiatic Pacific Theater of Operations as a member of Company A, 1330th Engineer General Service Regiment. On December 26, 1944 he was deployed to Wales and arrived on January 7, 1945. Robert left Okinawa on April 19, 1946 and arrived in the United States on May 14, 1946 and received a Honorable Discharge on May 18, 1946. He was awarded the Good Conduct Metal, European African Middle Eastern Theater Ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific Theater Ribbon and World War II Victory Ribbon.

Robert married Geneva V. Jackson on July 2, 1949, and was blessed with three daughters, Coutoura, Beverly and Terry. The marriage ended in divorce in 1964.

He married Lula Brown in 1983, the marriage ended in divorce in 1992.

Robert met Belinda Baylor, his companion of many years, with whom he shared the rest of his life.

Kitt as he was called by many was a dedicated employee whose reputation for diligence and hard work earned him awards, praise and respect of many. He was employed at Hudson Supply Co., Blake Construction Co. and Morauer Harzell, Inc. from which he retired in 1992. He was a member of the Teamsters Local 639 for 30 years.

Kitt was a member of Tabernacle Baptist Church, a die-hard Redskins fan, loved hand dancing, watching boxing matches, boating and fishing.

Kitt, who always greeted everyone with a smile, was loved by all who knew him. He was always willing to give a helping hand no matter what the task. He will be missed by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn three daughters, Coutoura, Beverly, and Terry Kitt, one grandson Denon Robert Kitt, one great-grandson Christopher Kitt-Lee, devoted companion Belinda Baylor, one brother Joseph Kitt, two nieces Janice Brown and Teylia Gambler and a host of other family and friends.

“ Daddy, I will never forget you or the love I feel for you. Most important I will never forget the love you had for me. I am thankful that I had the chance to make you proud of me and to see the sparkle in your eyes when you spoke of how far I had come. I am also thankful that my son has your name, so you will always be with us. MAY GOD BLESS YOUR SOUL, you were a kind and loving man, things will never be the same without you. May you rest in peace. Love always, your baby daughter Terry.##imported-begin##terry kitt##imported-end##

“ You can not say. You must not say that Robert Kitt is dead he's just away. With a wave of gods hand he has wondered into a unknown land. May god bless and keep my sister Belinda Baylor and the Kitt family. My love and blessings are with you all at your time of bereavement. Keep you hand in gods hand and he will see you through. I love you Kitt but god loved you more.
