

Robert Lee Marks, Sr.

August 20, 1938 - July 28, 2006

Our beloved father, husband, brother and loved one, Robert Lee Marks, Sr., departed this life on Friday, July 28, 2006 at Doctor's Community Hospital and now rests peacefully in the Lord.

Robert, who was affectionately known as "Reds", was born to the late Billy and Mary Marks in Black Ridge, Virginia on August 20, 1938. He attended school in Virginia before moving to Washington, D. C. at the age of twenty-one to live with his brother Claude Marks deceased.

Robert was united in Holy Matrimony to his beloved wife, Lovelean Mayo. Their marriage lasted forty-seven years and from that union seven children were born.

For many years, Robert worked in construction with his brother Claude and then became employed with longtime friend, Leroy Person with whom he stayed until retirement.

Robert leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Lovelean; four daughters, Lola, Jacqueline, Sheila and Brenda; two sons, Roger and James; three sons-in-law, Lincoln, Duane and Adam; nine grandchildren, Toney, Delont'e, Lincoln, Dion, Adam Jr., Bianca, Teahne, Lamar and Brittney; three great-grandchildren, Deandre, Arbrianna and Nathaniel; one brother, William; two sisters, Nellie and Louise; three sisters-in-law, Rosalyn, Corrine and Nannie; one brother-in-law, Thomas and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and friends.
