“ To the Family of Bro. Robert N. Griffin:

Whatever losses or disappointments life may bring, God's presence within us is a gentle spirit that comforts, soothes, ressure, and strengths us. Our faith in God's spirit brings us peace and comfort.

The spirit of God also guides us to the right people. Those who will support and comfort us in any circumstance. I am willing to be comforted by those who are close to me-by family, friends or support groups.

In the spirit of giving and receiving, I seek to comfort others in times of trouble, and word of support, a reassuring smile, or as offer of help, completing the cycle of giving and receiving. I am comforted at the depths of my soul and truly at peace.

"Even though I walk through the darkest valley. I fear no evil; for you are with me." Psalm 23-4##imported-begin##Brenda G. Farrar##imported-end##

“ TO MANUELITA AND FAMILY

John 14:1-3 ~ Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. Be encouraged by the Love of God.##imported-begin##Charlita Moses##imported-end##

“ What can I say. I will miss you wholeheartedly. I will miss the jokes that you made that only you laughed at. All the dinners at your place. I will even miss that raggedy Redskin robe that you refused to throw away. But most of all I will miss your kind, generous and humble nature. Rest in peace. Love you always.##imported-begin##Manuelita##imported-end##
