“ I first met Mr. Stewart when I was employed with the solid waste collection division, he took me under his wings and guided me to be being the best worker that I could and can be. He always had a smile and kind words to say whenever I saw him!!!! I felt so special, when "he allowed" (ok, after I gave him my puppy dog eyes!!) me to go on one of his shopping trips to NY!!! I was so excited, that he had to tell me on several occasions to close my mouth and stop looking like a tourist! When I purchased my first home, he would say to me, Come on out with me in the field, "You have some bricks to pay for" (LOL)!!

I know we say this all the time but!!!!!! He was truly one of a kind!!!!!! I will miss you dear friend!!! LOVE YA! I will say your name every morning in my prayers I can promise you that!!! Sharon!
