

Robert Lee Twitty Jr.

September 18, 1966 - October 29, 2020

Robert Lee Twitty Jr. was born September 18, 1966 to the Late Robert and Georgene Twitty at Georgetown University Hospital in Washington, DC. He fell asleep and traveled to heaven on October 29, 2020. At the age of three, Mr. Twitty was enrolled in the DC Society for Crippled Children, and at the age of six, Mr. Twitty was enrolled in Mamie Dee Lee School, a special education school in the District of Columbia that serves students identified as intellectually disabled. Prior to exiting the District of Columbia public schools at the age of 22, Mr. Twitty matriculated at several schools inclusive of Birney Elementary, Congress Heights and Fletcher Johnson Junior High School. In 1988, Mr. Twitty began receiving habilitation services from St. John's Community Services, Life Options program, and in September 1989 he began receiving residential services from St. John's Community Services.

Robert Twitty loved to party and dance to his favorite artist Michael Jackson and he always enjoyed listening to music with excitement. Robert Twitty enjoyed assembling puzzles, spending time with support staff, and engaging in community outings. While at Art & Drama Therapy Institute, Robert Twitty loved to perform in puppet shows, sang in the choir and perform his signature Ballet moves to all music

Robert Twitty was preceded in death by mom Georgene Twitty earlier this year.

Robert Twitty will be cherished, and remembered by Ms. Ethel Peterson, Ms. Mary Williams, along with various SJCS and DDS friends that seen him at his happiest. Mr. Twitty was a resilient person who loved life. Everyone can look to Robert Twitty for an example of perseverance, resilience and inner strength. Robert Twitty will be cherished and remembered, by his loving support staff, family, and friends.
