“ To the family of Rev. Robert L. White:

Please accept our sincere condolences in the loss of our family member: for truly he was a part of our family circle. We spent many wonderful times "Back in the Day" at his home along with Mom-Marie, where they welcomed us, and fed us, and showed us all of the history of the D C area. Also, we attended His church on our visits. We thank him for all of the love and caring he gave to our Stephanie and Avery, his only granddaughter, and great-grandson. He will be missed, and always remembered with love.

If Rev. White were here today, he would tell you, "You may be at my Homegoing, but I won't be there, I'll be up in that place, Jesus went to prepare. So, just take it easy, give thanks, and rejoice, that God is all- wise and made the right choice. You may go to my Homegoing, but I won't be there. I'll be over the rainbow with never a care."
