“ To a wonderful Dad who I'm truly miss from the days we can talk about anything to going places in the younger days. Yes it snowing 2ft deep and freezing in NY lol. The moment you knock on the door at your new home, with suit & Kangol hat on; Mom will open it, give you a great big hug and kiss, telling you " what taking you so long " (in her tone of voice). Mission Accomplish and I can finally spend times with my wife & daughter (Deedee} together.

Love you
Robert L Williams Jr.

“ Hi Daddy,
I miss you.

The day you left the earth it became still. It felt as no one was moving, no words were spoken and no actions were made. I struggled to notify people of your death because just like me, they'll be in disbelief too. Your laugh, smile and words of wisdom will never leave anyone's memory. You made a permanent mark and we are grateful for that. You had did all your duties that were assigned to you here , God has called you home to finish them up there. Mumu has waited for you 12 years, Daddy. Her and God knew it was time for you to come on home. I love you so much Daddy. Please continue to watch over us. 💕 😔
