

Roberto Ramos Rosa

May 25, 1959 - September 16, 2021

Obituary

Roberto Ramos Rosa, age 62, transitioned from his earthly vessel to his heavenly home on Thursday, September 16, 2021. Roberto was born to the late Severina Early and Jose Rosa on May 25, 1959, in Recife, Brasil. He is the middle child of 4 siblings. He relocated to Washington, D.C. from Brasil, when he was just 12 years old.

Roberto was educated in the public system at Wilson High School in Washington, DC and worked tirelessly as an engineer and super for 40 years. During his primary years, Roberto fathered two children, Monica and Anderson, with partner, Nilza Angel. As a devoted father and family man, Roberto has made several long lastly friends through his tenure with Donaldson Group, BDMG, and Realty Management. Raised Catholic, he dedicated his life to treating people with care and love, leaving a memorable smile and warmth with each interaction.

Always the life of the party, Roberto enjoyed travel, music, dancing, and food; he was famous for his Brazilian “lemonades” known as, caipirinhas. Roberto was very talented; he played several instruments including the guitar, drums, piano, tambourine, chess and had the best ‘off key’ singing voice. Roberto enjoyed country, hip hop, blues, and jazz music. Roberto was a simple man, a great day to him was a sunny afternoon in the yard with his family and friends, good food, and tons of laughs. Roberto enjoyed Sunday night football, whether his Redskins won or lost!

Roberto loves his family and leaves behind wife of 23 years Lora Murphy-Rosa, three children, Monica, Anderson, and Latoria, six grandchildren, Chris Jr., Daimon, Tatianna, Imani, Leland, and Josiah, and family dog, Love'. Roberto also leaves behind his family in Brasil; sister Priscila Ramos Rosa, brothers Jonas Felipe de Souza, Jean Felipe de Souza, Juarez Rogério, Felipe de Souza, nephews Adonis Felipe, Luan Felipe, David Luca, nieces Caroline Felipe de Souza, Maria Aparecida Felipe, and God daughter Bianca Oliveira.
