“ My friend, my student in Christ Jesus. May God Bless you and keep you during this difficult time. I loved your mother sooooo much! We had some wonderful times together both in the classroom and out. I visited her some many times in the hospital and rehab as we laughed, prayed and ate together. I always had to bring her some food. When she was well, she loved to bake me cakes and collard greens just to hear me brag about how good they were. I will miss her so much.

“ Sending love and prayers to our family. We are sorry that we are not able to attend the homegoing of our aunt Rochelle but we want our family to know that we are praying for you and God knows best. She is resting now in Gods arms. Love Frederica and Fredia (Celia's children)
