“ I have known Roger all my life and have enjoyed so many fond memories of him. From the very early years of getting haircuts in his mother's kitchen as a little boy, to attending jr. and sr. high schools, to enjoying the Superbowl with him in Pasadena, to the homegoing celebrations of my mother, brother and sister just a few years ago.

Roger has always been there and has always been a source of inspiration and joy. Roger will be missed by us all.

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
