Rest Well Brother! You touched so many. When I think back on the good times at Amtrak, I can't help but hear your voice. Your presence was the light of the train. Thank you for representing that for so many of us!

“ I'm so grateful I was able to cross paths with Roland. With the limited time I spent at Amtrak, he was truly one of my favorite people I had the pleasure of meeting on the train and one of the few I stayed in touch even after I left. From letting him call me Jenna for months when I first met him before correcting him (😭), being annulled in Florida multiple times together, many game nights on the train, him visiting me with friends in Fredericksburg a couple times and us having our Apple Watch challenges throughout these many years, he made such an incredible, positive impact on my life and we had such fun times together. I will miss my conversations with him and will hold onto our memories! 🌻 Miss you Roland.

“ Roland Im am so glad I had to pleasure to meet and create so many memories with such am amazing friend you brighten up everyone's life who got to know you. Thanks for being such an amazing friend I still have the lions you brought home from Tokyo. Enjoyed all the games comedy shows and hanging out one of my greatest memories when I had to coach you to eat the One pound burger in the burger challenge you didnt eat all day and you smashed it. This is the kinda of pain I dont wish on anyone but its puts a smile on face to know you was loved by so many people and even though you are not with us anymore you will forever live in my memory until we meet again
