“ *I remember when I first met Ron and his wife Carolyn in 2004 at a youth event. They were a warming and a pleasure to meet. Then 10 years later, I moved and ended up at their home church. To this day, Ron was still supporting the youth and always willing to help out around the church and his community. He was very passionate about the injustice that is going on today and wanted to make a difference. May his desires spread. May his willingness to serve spread. He will be missed. “ We wish to send our deepest condolences to the Lockard family and pray God’s peace over all of you. Brother Lockard was such a blessing to Butch and I when he and Brother Johnson gave Bible studies to us so we could get Baptized and we loved when it was his turn to teach the study in Sabbath school. He had such a flair for it and he would light up while doing it. It’s been an honor and a privilege to know such a decent, God-fearing man and he will be greatly missed. This was a blow to us so we can only imagine how it’s affecting you. May God Bless and keep all of you.

With Love, Harold “Butch” Swann and Melissa Proctor
