“ Winbush as I called him took a liking to my 14 year old son Jared (J.R.) when he was in about 3rd grade. My son would get dropped off at FBCG gym to shoot around and Winbush began allowing him to workout with the older guys he was training. From there we just kept in contact over the years, and J.R. was in the gym with him weekly. He was truly a sounding board for me as I am a Basketball Mom who knows nothing of the sport. Winbush was probably one of my son's biggest supporters and was integral in building his confidence in his game. Winbush had such a big personality and was so passionate. We all loved him I will miss our talks. I'm sure those that know him even more than I did, know that he was talker:-) So I would always wait until I went on my afternoon walk because I knew we'd be talking for a while. He had such a genuine and down to earth spirit about him. Gone too soon in my opinion, but I know that the Lord has the final say. I think we can all take solace in the fact that while he was here he impacted the lives of many. To his family, Thank You sharing a Basketball Angel with us. Our hearts go out to you all. I pray that God graces you with whatever you may need.

With Love,
J.R. and Family

“ I will miss my Crittenden St friend. We grew up together and we were like family. I didn't see him much in recent years, but just knowing he was around gave me comfort. I always looked forward to opportunities to run into him. Lesson for me: be more intentional about staying in touch with old friends! Take comfort to all that are touched by his passing because: “To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord!” — Barbara (Cobb)
