“ My brother Ronnie will be missed by me and the family in a big way. Ronnie was a person from my interactions of a strong and unyielding mindset. When we were children growing up there was this one encounter where I had been left in charge by our parent to make sure that everyone got ready for bed on time. When I asked Ronnie to do the things to prepare for bed he said to me I wasn't in charge of him and I wasn't his mother. So I had to exact a little forceful coercion to get him to do what needed to be done. He did proceed to do as I had asked but not without a little friendly persuasion by me. So that being said he was a person of stubborn and deep convictions but always in a good way. That's the Ronnie I knew. May you rest in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and this is not goodbye but see you later my brother. Thomas Dade
