“ The Harshaw family sends condolences to Darrell and Ms Rose Brooks Lindsey's family. Our family paths crossed in many ways. First, Rose Brooks, as my father always referred to her, was a coworker and carpooling partner with Charlie Joiner and my father for the evening shift of Defense Printing at the Pentagon. She remembered that he brought her a banana every day. Next, Darrell and I attended and graduated from Anacostia High School together in 1969. Lastly, The Brooks family lived in my same block of 46th St, G St, and Alabama Ave on Hilltop Terr. SE. in the new homes built directly behind our house.
