“ Although I never met Ms. Bell, I?m sure she will be greatly missed by his family and friends, as well as those whose life he may have touched in the community and I would like to offer my sincere condolences. Usually when we read about the death of someone it brings us sadness. However, it is comforting to know of the promises in the Bible. One such promise mentioned at Isaiah 26:19 speaks of a resurrection. There it reads in part, ?Your dead ones will live. . . . They will rise up.? Psalm 37:29 further states: ?The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.? Such promises are very comforting during this time. However, Revelation 21:3 & 4 is really one that brings great joy. There God promises of that one day all the things that brings us sorrow today will be a thing of the past. There it says, ?With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: ?Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.? I hope these scriptures will bring comfort to Mr. Curtis' family and friends.##imported-begin##Mary##imported-end##
