“ May the peace and tender mercies of our heavenly Father be with you as you mourn the passing of Mr. Hines. At Rev21:4 he makes this promise: And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more neither Will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Then God says: Look! I am making all things new. Then he says, "Write! Because these words are faithful and true. So dear family one day the pain of such things as sickness, old-age, and death will be a thing of the past and the dead will live again. Daniel 2:44. May the hope of seeing your loved ones again bring you much comfort.

“ To my grandfather in law Mr. Roy; the news of your passing hurt me deeply. I will never forget the visits I had with you, how you opened your door to me, when I was in the Silver Spring area, and your memory of things from years ago. I will remember you always. Rip Mr. Roy you are free of all pain.

“ Daddy you will truly be missed I was there right by your side from the beginning of your journey and I would do it all over again in a heart beat. You have taught me so much and I am so grateful for that. How to ride my bike without training wheels (although u let me go to soon and I crashed into a fence) You thought that was so funny . You taught me how to two step in the basement standing on your feet (and I kept falling off) now that was funny to me . You also taught me how to ham- bone too . SO many great things we did together I will never forget and always cherish. My favorite of all time was when you walked me down the aisle the second time and said in my ear "this time I think you got it right and that we had your blessing" So many great stories you shared with me and always made me laugh. Was there for the birth of my son and call the doctor and told them "don't let my grandson leave with out getting him circumcised. back then I didn't even know what that was . Even when you had to start using a cane to walk you would walk over to the park with me and Marcus and hit the ball with your cane and my son would laugh and you made him run and get the ball. Just thinking about all the times we would come over and you and your grandson would play Connect 4 together and he would laugh so hard because you would always cheat was a joy in its self. I miss you dad so much you were my hero. NO more pain .Until we meet again.

Love and kisses

“ You came into my life when I was just 15 months old and made me an addition to your family , You along with mom taught me how to do so much with grace, love, respect and honesty . Daddy you taught me how to ride my bike how to dance (doing the two step standing on your feet) how to blow bubbles with bubble gum and many many other adventures. You were the best dad to me I could ever hope for. I was glad to be there for you from the beginning of your journey caring til the final end I miss you so much and you will always remain in my heart. I would do it all over again in a heart beat. Love U to the Moon and back.
