

Roy Lee Morgan

December 23, 1946 - July 24, 2020

Roy Lee Morgan was Born December 23, 1946 in Blackstone, Virginia to Otha Lee Morgan and Betty Mae Hood. Roy dropped out of school and became a working man at an early age to help provide for his family. While in Washington, D.C., Roy returned to school to receive his diploma in 1976.

In 1967, Roy was drafted into the U.S. Armed forces, in which he served for two years. After finishing his Vietnam War commitment and receiving an honorable discharge in 1969, he retreated back to D.C. as an esteemed war veteran.

In the early 1970's, Roy was introduced to a young lady named Dorothea Omega Rorie by her brother and Roy's friend, Jerome" Butch" Rorie. In 1989, Roy & Dorothea vowed to be husband and wife. They maintained their union over the years and were blessed to be proud parents of three sons: Kevin, Keith and Maurice. In November 2015, beloved wife and mother, Dorothea Morgan, passed away and was laid to rest.

The highlights of Roy's professional accomplishments starts with his career as a mechanic and eventually becoming an ASE Certified Auto Technician for over 20 years. Also, Roy continued his career as a United States Postal Worker in 1985. Roy officially retired in 2002 and never looked back.

Roy had an unique style of parenting his three sons (Kevin, Keith and Maurice). A prime example of this is when his sons would leave lights on in rooms unoccupied rooms. Roy would often remind his sons, that it was not cost efficient when lights were left on unnecessarily. Roy would even took it a extra step by showing his sons the outdoor meter of the electricity box spinning rapidly. By saying, "That's money being WASTED."

Roy was a kind, caring, funny and loving man with a witty mind and sense of humor. Roy Lee will be truly missed by many.

Roy leaves to treasure and cherish the legacy of love and fond memories: three sons, Kevin, Keith (Kiliaha D) and Maurice Rorie; three grandchildren, Maurice Jael, Kayla Simone and Keith Jamal Rorie. One brother Gilbert Morgan; two sisters, Francine & Pearlie Morgan and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, loved ones and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Otha Lee Morgan and Betty Mae Hood; sisters Barbara Ann & Ruth Helen Morgan Coward and his loving wife of 26 years Dorothea Omega Rorie Morgan.
