“ It seems unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. When it happens the thought of never again being able to talk, laugh, comfort, or hold your loved one again can be devastating. My condolences go out to the family. As you prepare to lay your loved one to rest, may you can find comfort from your Bibles at Nahum 1:7. God is a stronghold for the distressed.

“ With much love and my sincere condolences to the family. It was a pleasure being in Ma Ruby's presence. She was full of life, jovial, and quite funny. She opened her heart and home to me and my siblings after our mother passed. She was my sister Anita's mother-in-law. Ruby, you will be missed. Much love Barbara Williams. ❤️

“ To The family: Your mom was a mom to all of us and I remember her allowing us to make our peanut butter cookies; while listening to Al Green when we came over on the weekends. God has truly gained another angel.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Cherish the fond memories of your dear loved one. Have faith in the Kingdom Jesus taught his early followers to pray for at Matthew 6:9. This Kingdom will do away with our enemy, death, once and for all. Then we can look forward to another important action, the resurrection of millions of dead loved ones who have the prospect of growing to perfection under God's Messianic King. What great family reunions lay ahead. Until then let us run this race for life with endurance.

“ May we offer our sincere condolences during your time of sorrow. Jesus spoke comforting words at John 14:27 that we wish to share with your family.
