“ Louise:

I just wanted to let you know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. I know you were a blessing to your father's life and in time you will have fond memories of the year's he was a part of your life.

Love,

“ To the Timbers Family. I had the pleasure of working with Russell for many years at National Cathedral School. He was a gentleman who performed his work well and with great pride. Please accept my sincere sympathy. It was my pleasure to have known him.
