MA

Prayers to you all. Im just thinking about how we all thought we were an xgames team, all the days on the ball court, the foot races etc. Most of all the trash talking. He was an outstanding person. I pray for strength and healing to all

“ I'm posting this as I view the livestream of the service. I was a semipro football teammate of Samal. The first time I remember hearing him say anything was in practice; when our offense started flat. He showed his leadership at the top of his lungs; and he got everybody's attention. The rest of the practice we got it together. He was truly a good man and great father. My prayers to all his family...

“ Samal thanks for the memories and random conversations. Football caused you to gain a lot of brothers. Appreciate you for everything Brother. That smile was contagious.

“ He was a very generous, outgoing, kind-hearted, and caring person. He loved to crack jokes and make people laugh. Samal Sr. was an all around good person. He would give you his last. He encouraged others simply because he genuinely wanted to see people succeed and be their greatest selves. He had a smile that'll brighten up a room and a heart that could make a million people happy. He loved his family and most importantly his son. He wanted to give his son everything.

Samal Sr. will truly be missed my many. My condolences go out to his son, mom, brother, nieces, nephews, family, and friends

“ We can't begin to imagine what you must be feeling, but please let us share our heartfelt condolences. In just a little while all of the pain and sorrow that we feel from the death of our love ones will cease and be replaced with joy, because the former things have passed away. Truly sorry for your loss.

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
