“ My condolences to the Atkinson family. Sam was a very nice man who had a heart of gold! Sam and I became friends when we were employed at the Naval Security Station in 1987. We immediately connected through our mutual friend, the late Martha Henderson. Sam was always energetic and willing to help others, regardless of the situation. One of the fondest memories of Sam is that he was a great basketball player! He could play some ball! Whenever he participated in basketball games at the Naval Security Station, fans would come from all corners just to support him. God blessed us with Sam's presence for an extended period, and I am grateful to have had the chance to meet him. I am confident that Sam has achieved his angel wings. May he rest in peace. God bless!
