“ Hey Buddy,

It's me shorty, thanksgiving is tomorrow. I just wanted a personal moment to wish you a HAPPY THANKSGIVING. THANK YOU FOR BEING THE AWESOME, BIG-HEARTED PERSON THAT YOU WERE AND THOSE ATTRIBUTES SPILLED RIGHT OVER INTO FATHERHOOD! Your nephew George and Betty (wife) came to Church on Sunday, George enjoyed the service and they are coming back on Sunday (12/01). Bernadette (niece) lost her husband recently, Mom sent her card on our behalf.

Mom & I love you. The pain is still here, but we know that you are in better hands.

“ Hi Dad,

I'm just thinking about you and wanted to post a message. Mom and I are doing very well. The Church has moved to it's new location. I remember you asking me on Saturday nights - "hey shorty we going to Church in the morning?" It did my heart well, made it smile and say, yep we going. The dinners we shared and the countless times we went shopping, especially to Khol's. I could go on and on, that's just how much time the three of us spent together as a family. Continue your rest Dad and know that Our Love for you still burns bright in our hearts.

“ Hey Uncle Sam! It's so hard to say goodbye. Missing you already. You used to say to Mom, "I sure miss my buddy," speaking of Dad "Brew." I know he has been waiting for you beyond those beautiful clouds in the sky. I can hear you two now bragging about how good you two looked. Take your rest dear Uncle until we meet again. Luv you much!

Dear Sherrie and Crim Family,

Grace and Peace be multiplied to you in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Human words are always inadequate in the face of unspeakable loss. There are no human words that can soothe the heart of a grieving parent, sibling, spouse or child. Our hearts go out to you as we join you in your grief.

Do not despair, nor let your heart be troubled. Walk always in the bright light of joy with a heart filled with rejoicing. Do not grumble nor complain; but in everything be grateful and give thanks. For if there be any good things, think on them. Focus on the blessings God has showered your life with, especially with your departed love one. You may not always be able to control the circumstances that take place in your life; but you can always control what you think about.

As Christians, we know this is not our real home. Christ conquered death for all of us-we will see our loved ones again. We grieve, yet through Christ we know our grief will turn to joy. And in the midst of our grief, we can join Job in saying, "For I know that my Redeemer lives, And He shall stand at last on the earth." (Job 19:25 NKJV)

Please remember that you are not alone-you have a Redeemer and a family in Christ. All of us at Rehoboth New Life Church share your sorrow at the loss of your Father, brother, Uncle and friend. May the grace of our Redeemer, and the love of the Father, and the comfort of the Holy Spirit be with you.

Yours in Christ,

Bishop (Dr.) Ernest C. and First Lady Eleanor Dawson, Senior Pastor, Rehoboth New Life Church Alliance
